

BREAKFAST BUDGET BRIEFING

On 22 April 2009 Alistair Darling will deliver his second Budget. Against a background of continuing economic difficulties, unprecedented cash bailouts for the banks and a huge reduction in tax revenues in January the Chancellor's room for maneuver must be limited.

Be among the first to hear an in-depth analysis of the economic and taxation implications of the Budget and the outlook for Northern Ireland within the National & International context.

Richard Ramsey is the NI Economist with Ulster Bank and has over ten years experience working in the Public Sector including spells as Principal Economist at the Department of Enterprise, Trade & Investment & Invest Northern Ireland.

Mike Nangle is the Tax Partner with Dawson Nangle Tumelty one of the Provinces leading independent firms of Chartered Accountants. Formerly a senior Inspector of Taxes, Mike is a chartered accountant who has worked in the tax field for over 20 years and advises and lectures on many aspects of taxation.
